

cool for cats

tip

Think about rooms your kids can grow with. They will want to start decorating their own rooms and stamping it with their own personality. Before you start to redecorate, get them to look online for room themes and colour combinations they like. This will help them start developing their own style.